N° 381 paris 23 prairial 9

Je recois hyer un billet pour diner aujourdhuy à Malmaison, je présume que c'est comme membre de la commission et que par conséquent mon cher collegue et voisin en a reçu un pareil. Si cela est, et qu'il n'ait pas d'arrangement pris, je lui propose ou d'accepter une place ou de m'en donner une pour faire ensemble la route aller et revenir. un mot de réponse. Salut et amitié

L. B. Guyton

Rue de Lille n.° 504

Guyton de Morveau

DSI

je Declare etre né Le 4 janvier mil sept cent trente sept, et avoir atteint ma soixantième année le 15 nivose an cinq (4 janvier 1797 v. st.)

à paris le 29 frimaire an six

L. B. Guyton

L. B. Guyton de Morveau
chemist
1737–1816

DSI

2 GUYTON de MORVEAU (Louis Bernard, prof. chem., Ecole Polytechnique, collaborator with Lavoisier in 'Méthode de Nomenclature chimique', 1737-1816) A.D.S. (L. B. GUYTON), á Paris le 29 frimaire an six [1798], 17*s* 6*d*

LONDON SOTHERAN

52

A statement giving exact particulars as to the date of his birth.

This letter seems to refer to a proposed recall from the front of H. G. J. Moseley, the celebrated physicis formulator of the law named after him, who was killed in action at Gallipoli, on 10 August 1915. 'Your lette morning has roused my deepest sympathy. . . . Not being one of the channel through which the appeal had b made I thought it best to write to Mr. Asquith whom I know sufficiently well to be sure that he will put the a on the right lines and help it forward if he can. I have also written to Mr. Balfour, with whom my acquainta more intimate, briefly stating the case and asking him to put in his word in support of the application. I have